WEEK'S PROGRAM SCORES A HIT

A Decidedly Clever Bill at Vaudeville Theater.

Tulsa, the Girl with the Black Eyes Simply takes the Audience by Storm

Two large audiences greeted the initial productions of the week, at the Marion Family theatre last night. The bill proved one of unusual fine quality and each respective number made a great hit with the audience.

A clever mystifying trick performance arousing the curiosity of all was performed by Oneida assisted by U. V. Lee. A spiritualistic cabinet entombing the lady who with her hands head and feet tied would ring bells, blow horns and bring about strange changes. It was as clever a trick performance as has been seen in the city in many years.

ONEIDA, THE MYSTIC
Who With Prof. H. V. Lee is Appearing at Family Theater

Tulsa, the girl with the pretty black eyes presented an act that was decidedly clever. Though hissed by some rowdy youngsters when she first made her appearance, Tulsa before she left in her last act had the good will of the entire audience and was compelled to respond to a half a dozen encores. The turn proved the hit of the evening.

Jeany and Ellsworth presented a novelty musical act that proved clever in the extreme and the number was undoubtedly as highly appreciated as any ever presented at the local play house.

The De Lacey, dancers and singers were unusual in a singing and dancing act. The young lady De Lacey is her impersonations and facial expressions was exceptionally clever and held the rapt attention of the audience throughout the act.

Concluding features of the bill, Miss Coleman sang "Plain Little Soldier Man" and Baum recited off a yard and one-half of moving picture film entitled "More Room."

Mrs. Scott Siddons was a famous stage beauty in her day, so was Mary Anderson and Margaret Math. er. More recently, Mrs. Langtry and Lillian Russell shared the honors and have had their likenesses as famous actresses whom the God of beauty smiled upon, and whose comparisons were found wanting. Up to and including the present time, Maxine Elliott has been extolled and dreamed about on account of her rare physical attractiveness, but now she has another fair sister who is fast becoming famous for her rare type. Old time beauty judges say that Miss Florence Huntington closely resembles a well defined type of a composite of the whole. Not only has nature endowed Miss Huntington with her rare beauty, but has also given her talent to act, which has been attested by her clever and versatile work in David Belasco's remarkable romance, "La Petite Ruse," the title role of which she is essaying the present season and in which she will be seen for the only time this season, supported by a company of sterling ability, at the Grand Opera House this evening.

SOCIETY and WOMAN'S WORK

The regular semi-monthly meeting of the Epworth Literary Circle was held at the home of Mrs. E. C. Smith of South Vine street yesterday afternoon. The attendance was large and highly interesting and instructive program was enjoyed.

In response to roll call each member gave some favorite scripture quotation: Mrs. S. L. Leeka read an excellent paper on the life and works of Ernest Seton Thomas. Mrs. W. L. Stamp delivered a paper on the biography of Edward Eggleston and pioneer fiction. She also gave a reading from the "Hoosier Schoolmaster." In conclusion the circle discussed the works of Charles Kellogg, the practical Christianity of Charles Sheldon and Ralph Connor. At the close of the program an interesting social session was enjoyed.

The Circle decided to meet again in two weeks at the home of Mrs. J. B. Virden on St. James street.

A well attended meeting of the Frances Willard W. C. T. U. was held Monday afternoon at two o'clock at the home of the president on South State street.

Devotional were led by the president Mrs. Fletcher. By special request Mother Matilda Thew, the railroad evangelist, who is very sick at her home on South Main street was remembered in prayer.

Rev. C. B. Platt pastor of the Central Christian church then gave a very interesting and much appreciated talk.

Roll call was answered with items of encouragement, among which was the account of the Local Option election at Knoxville, Tenn., which went dry with a majority of 2000, there being 6415 votes cast.

The Union received a letter from Mrs. A. A. McMillan of Butte, Montana stating that the silk quilt sent for the U. S. fair had reached its destination and was very thankfully received.

After the meeting some of the women went to the home of Mother Thew and held a prayer meeting.

Mrs. Martha Keller, of East Center street, entertained the members of the Woman's club at a regular meeting yesterday afternoon. The roll call was answered with quotations from Kipling and two papers "Jaynor" and "The Jugglers" were read by Mrs. Victor Dombaugh.

Mrs. J. W. Wren gave a reading on the subject, "The Light of Asia." The meeting was concluded with a general discussion of the topic, "What We Owe the Orient."

Mrs. Charles L. Allen, of Delaware avenue, will be the next hostess.

The Current Topic club was pleasantly entertained yesterday afternoon by Mrs. D. L. Sellers, of Ellis street. The roll call was answered by current topics, and Mrs. M. E. Wetmore read a very interesting paper on the subject, "Hamburg, Germany's Commercial Center."

Mrs. T. E. Day read a paper on "The German Woman." A discussion closed the program of the afternoon. Mrs. W. R. Richardson, of Oberlin, was the only guest.

The club will meet next Monday afternoon with Mrs. Byron Hume, of South State street. The meeting will be the last of the club year.

Julius J. Beekman, of Cleveland and Miss Anna M. Close, daughter of Hon. and Mrs. James T. Close, were quietly married at 6 o'clock Saturday evening by Rev. John W. Holland, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, at the home of the bride, on West Wyandot avenue, the ring service being used.

The wedding was a great surprise even to the bride's most intimate friends and was carefully planned, so that nothing was known concerning the happy event until the formal announcement was made Saturday evening by the bride's family.

The ceremony was witnessed by only the bride's immediate family, the words, which made two happy hearts beat as one being said by Miss Maudie Ellis, of northeast of town and a warm friend of the bride, rendered a wedding march. The bride looked pretty in a dress of white silk. Immediately after the wedding a most elegant supper was served by Mrs. Close.

Miss Close is one of this city's most popular young ladies, having been connected with the local public schools as a teacher for a couple of years. She is a graduate of the local high school and also took advanced work at Ohio State University. She is a fine musician and is possessed of those amiable qualities which will prove her an ideal companion. Mr. Beekman is a prosperous business man of Cleveland, and is very highly spoken of by all who know him. He is to be congratulated upon having won one of the Indian village's fairest daughters as his bride.

Mrs. Beekman has tendered her resignation as teacher to the board of education, the same to take effect within a few weeks. When her successor has been secured Mr. and Mrs. Beekman will enjoy an extended wedding trip, after which they will locate either in Chicago or Pittsburg.

Mr. Beekman returned to his business cares at Cleveland Monday—Upper Sandusky Chief.

The bride is very well known in Marion social circles where she has often visited and her many amiable qualities have given her a wide circle of appreciative and admiring friends here.

A very pretty wedding event was celebrated at the home of Mrs. Michael Albrecht of East Columbia street, Tuesday at high noon when the eldest daughter Miss Minnie Pauline Albrecht was united in marriage to Mr. Leroy Miller Lindsay of North State street.

Promptly at twelve o'clock the beautiful strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, was sounded by Mr. William Dowler and marching to an altar of palms and roses, the young couple received the solemn wedding vows administered by Rev. Joseph Heinicke. The pretty ring ceremony was used, William Albrecht, a brother of the bride, from Columbus giving her away while Dr. Albrecht of Toledo was master of ceremonies. The bride was gown in delicate net over white silk.

The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion in palms, smilax, blooming plants and pink flowers. The color scheme of pink and white was observed throughout.

Immediately at the close of the ceremony the wedding guests were ushered to the dining rooms where an elaborate four course wedding dinner was served, covers being laid for twenty-five. The plate favors were dainty boxes of pink candy hearts while the table decorations were bride's roses and carnations.

The bride and groom are prominent young people of the city, and have scores of friends who extend best wishes. The groom holds a responsible position at the Erie freight house and is a young man of sterling character. The bride was employed at the Deutscher Press as book-keeper.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay left Tuesday afternoon for Toledo where tonight the bride's brother will entertain with a reception. After an extended wedding trip they will return to the city and take up their residence at the home of the bride's mother.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Central Christian church gave a "Sack" social in the church basement last night which proved a most delightful occasion. Each guest deposited upon arrival, two cents for every number of the sack. The attendance was exceedingly large and evidentially so were the socks for the ladies realized a neat sum which will be placed in the aid fund.

In the early evening an informal literary and musical program was rendered after which refreshments were served and a general good social time was enjoyed.

Mrs. N. F. Tilton was hostess to the Advance club at her home on Girard avenue, yesterday afternoon. Mrs. F. E. Schaeffer read a very interesting paper, dealing with the court life and the royal palace at Madrid and the King Alfonso and his bride. Miss Rachel Thomas read a paper on "Michael Angelo," and Mrs. Tubbs spoke on the topic, "An Art Pilgrimage." The meeting was closed with a general discussion of the Spanish court life.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Wilham Gross, of East Center street.

Honoring his birthday anniversary a company of friends and neighbors numbering about twenty-five, gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ramey, one mile north of Prospect Monday night, perpetrating a delightful surprise party. The evening was passed pleasantly at music and games. A delicious three course lunch-on was served by Mrs. Ramey.

WILL BUILD NEW DEPOT

C. D. & M. Secures an Option on Land.

LOCAL FREIGHT HOUSE

Completed in Rear of the Marion Station.

For the First Time Since Last Wednesday Local Trains are Running on Schedule.

The C. D. & M. has completed its new freight and express depot in the rear of the interurban station on North State street. For the past several weeks a force of carpenters under foreman Wesley Collins of Delaware have at odd hours been rushing the new building to completion.

At Columbus the C. D. & M. is taking steps to secure a new freight depot as the following clipping from the Ohio State Journal will testify:

"The Columbus, Delaware and Marion Electric company has secured an option on a large tract on the west side of Water street, north of Gay street, upon which it is proposed to erect a large depot for freight purposes exclusively. It may be that a passenger depot may be erected on the same site, but that is not likely under present conditions, as it is proposed to unite with the Indiana, Columbus and Eastern in a large interurban station, to be erected on another site."

"The purchase of the property has not been closed as yet, but it is the opinion that the papers for the transfer of the site will be passed in the near future. General Manager Whyall was on Columbus several days ago working out the details of the deal. The site is said to be close to Gay street and one which is well situated for the purpose for which it is intended."

The sale of excursion tickets to San Francisco and Los Angeles for the various summer conventions have been authorized by the Pennsylvania. Agents have been apprised of the dates, fares and other conditions governing these excursions. Low fares have been named and the roads expect to do terrific business in these western excursions during the coming summer months.

The annual convention of the Mystic Shrine will be held in Los Angeles from May 6 to 11. Tickets for this will be placed on sale from April 27 to May 1. The German Baptist Brethren hold their annual convention there also from May 16 to 23. Tickets placed on sale May 11 to 15. The National Eclectic Medical association will meet at the same place from June 18 to 21, and the tickets will be on sale from June 18 to 21.

These tickets are good on any regular direct route, returning over the same, or any other direct route. The tickets are good for about 30 days.

The work of double-tracking the Erie west of Mansfield, has been brought to a sudden halt and the scores of laborers employed on the job have been thrown out of employment. The officials will not say when the work will be resumed, and it is thought that the flurry in Wall street has had something to do with the sudden suspension of the proposed improvement.

After the great confusion cause by the great floods, once again the Marion railroads are back to normal operations and today for the first time since last Wednesday the Erie conductors made their customary through trip runs. Practically all of the trains running into Marion were on time today, and everything was marked with smoothness.

W. H. Hartsough, traveling passenger agent of the Hocking Valley, with headquarters at Columbus, was looking after business at the local station today.

SEVENTEEN YEARS OF SUCCESSFUL WORK

This is the seventeenth year Lima Business College has been in successful operation in the city of Lima. It is now one of the largest private schools in the west. Many a young man points with pride to the fact that he is graduate of Lima Business College. Many a successful business man owes his success to the thorough business training he received there. Seventeen years of successful effort as a business college is no mean record. Seventeen years of steady growth, of a business doubled twice in that time means that it has merited what it has gained; that it has met the requirements of a modern business age; that it has turned out students who have successfully held the positions furnished to them; that it has established a record for honesty and square dealing; that it is recognized as one of Ohio's best institutions of learning. Bookkeeping or Short-hand course $30.
